

Treaties & Land

Chippewas of the Thames First Nation

- Anishinaabek Deshkan Ziibiing (original people along the antler river)
- Also known as Ojibway people whose original language, Anishinaabemowin, is identified within the Algonquin language family
- COTTFN's Traditional and Treaty territories together span the entirety of southwestern Ontario
- Today, COTTFN's reserve lands measure approximately 10,410 acres located along the Thames River, southwest of London
- Traditional territory extends south of the Canada/U.S. border into Michigan

Chippewas of the Thames Treaty Chronology

-  Huron Tract Treaty - 1827 #29
This is an approximation intended for educational purposes. Accuracy is not
-  London Township Treaty - 1796 #6
This is an approximation intended for educational purposes. Accuracy is not
-  Mckee Treaty - 1790 #2
This is an approximation intended for educational purposes. Accuracy is not
-  Sombra Treaty - 1796 #7
This is an approximation intended for educational purposes. Accuracy is not
-  Longwoods Treaty - 1822 #25
This is an approximation intended for educational purposes. Accuracy is not

